MY HERO ★★★

THANKFUL FOR HEROES

If you could pin a medal on a hero in a book you are reading, who would it be?

There are many ways to be a hero. This November, let's honor as many kinds of heroes as we can by reading and writing about them!

Pinellas Reading Challenge
There are 2 ways to participate!

Read and Respond Challenge

RULES:

1. Read at least one book about a hero on myON.

Tip: you can Search using keywords like these:
- Community helpers
- Family and friends
- Heroes
- Teachers
- Veterans

Can you think of any other kinds of heroes?
Search for them on myON!

2. Answer this question: How is the character in this book a hero to you and why are you thankful for them?

- Write your answer on the form located here:
  https://pinellas.renaissance.com/november-reading-challenge/
- How long should your answer be?
  - Grades Pre-K—2: 25 words or fewer
  - Grades 3—5: 25 to 50 words

  Younger students may need help from a family member or other trusted adult to write the response.

Winners will be selected in each grade range:
- Pre-K—Grade 2   • Grades 3—5

Selection of winners:
Winners will be selected based upon how well they respond to the question and relate it to their hero.

To start reading, go to www.myon.com
