

You can open work that your teacher has assigned (like Reference Materials or Word documents, in this example.) You can also upload your own files (like pictures of work you did on paper) by clicking the “Add Work” button. Complete your work, close the documents when you are finished, and turn the assignment in.

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Teams interface for an assignment titled "3-2-1 Reflection". The assignment is due tomorrow at 11:59 PM and is worth 50 points. The instructions include reading an article, filling out a template, and turning in the work. The "My work" section shows a file named "3-2-1_template.docx" and an "Add work" button. A "Turn in" button is visible in the top right corner. Handwritten red annotations include: "Upload your own files" with an arrow pointing to the "Add work" button; "MAKE SURE TO CLICK HERE WHEN FINISHED!" with an arrow pointing to the "Turn in" button; and "Edit directly in handouts from your teacher" with an arrow pointing to the file name.

Important: Be sure to click Turn in when you are done! If you don't click turn in your teacher won't know to grade your work!

The screenshot shows a Microsoft Word document titled "3-2-1 Reflection". The document content includes the heading "3-2-1 Reflection" and the text "Three things you learned:" followed by a list item: "1. I learned that a refrigerator can be connected to the Internet". The "Close" button in the top right corner of the Word window is circled in red. A handwritten red note says: "If working in a file your teacher uploaded, close it then click TURN IN" with an arrow pointing to the "Close" button.
