SUPPORTING PINELLAS STUDENTS SINCE 2004

What is the Referendum?

- Since 2004, the Pinellas County Schools Referendum has supported the recruitment and retention of quality teachers; strengthened reading, music and art programs; and provided up-to-date technology.
- Pinellas County voters have overwhelmingly supported renewals of the tax since 2004.
- An independent committee (ICROC) oversees the distribution of funds to ensure that money is spent as voters intended.

Each year, thousands of students participate in Referendum-funded field trips to museums and art centers.
