

2025-2026 Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan

School Name:

Please use the Comprehensive Needs Assessment Data and any other family engagement data to complete the following:

School's Mission Statement: Every student. Every day. Being prepared for high school, college, career, and life

Measurable Outcomes: Increased number in families participating in family engagement and academic events to 1/3 of the school.

Building Capacity of Families

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parent and family activities, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, the community to improve student academic achievement [Section 1118(e)]. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement [Section 1118(e)(2)]. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under Section 1118 as parents may request [Section 1118(e)(14)].

Bay Point Middle School believes in involving parents in all aspects of its Title I programs, therefore our school will encourage parents to become active members of our School Advisory Council (SAC). More than 50 percent of the members of the SAC are required to be parent (non-employee) representatives. The SAC has the responsibility for developing, implementing, and evaluating the various school level plans, including the School Improvement Plan (SIP) and Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). Therefore, parents will be provided opportunities to give input in the development and decision-making process of all Title I activities related to the school. Parents will receive individualized student reports about the performance of their child(ren) on the State assessments; timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who has not completed the criteria for state level certification; timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals. An annual evaluation will be conducted using surveys completed by stakeholders. The results will be analyzed to evaluate the effectiveness of the school's parent involvement program. Parents may request additional support either directly through their child's teacher or grade level administrator. A parent may also request support during regularly scheduled SAC or PTO meetings.

We will schedule the following parent and family engagement events with a focus on building relationships/ building families' capacity to improve the academic achievement of our students:

- 6th Grade Orientation
- Annual Title I Meeting
- Behavior Interventions supports meetings
- Academic family nights (Spring and Fall Festivals)

Describe the professional development activities the school will provide to educate the teachers, pupil services personnel, principals, and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs, and build ties between parents and schools [Section 1118(e)(3)]

How will school leadership actively build teacher and staff capacity related ongoing family engagement connected to academic goals?

At least once me semester administrators will provide family engagement training opportunities to assist with building their capacity regarding family engagement.

Title I Annual Parent Meeting Experience

Each school will convene an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the schools Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (schoolwide or targeted assistance), school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. [Section 1118(c)(1)].

How will you get recorded feedback from parents about the meeting? How will the recorded feedback be used to inform future events? All aspects of Title I are shared using the district Title I PowerPoint template which includes information such as: What is Title I, Parent and Family Engagement Plan, School-Parent Compact, Parents Rights, Assessments, Title I Funds, Title I Focus, school curriculum and programs including parent engagement events for the year and allow time for open discussion and Q&A with parents/guardians. Family and community feedback is collected during quarterly SAC meetings, annual Parent and Family Engagement Plan survey. Parent input is also collected at each parent engagement event/activity through the event/activity survey and reviewed during Admin, ILT and SBLT meetings and at quarterly SAC meetings.

How will you address barriers to increase attendance and academic support at home? The school seeks parent input on which times are best to attend meetings and activities that meet the needs of parents through event/activity surveys, quarterly SAC meetings, and via the annual Parent and Family Engagement survey. Childcare is provided for parent engagement events/activities that do not include children participating with their parent/guardian. Translators for the ESOL population are also provided for events. Students are provided with a laptop that can use and kept at home to assist with academic support. Our student services, MTSS, and administrative team will contact parents of students with attendance issues to identify barriers and determine ways to improve their attendance.

How will you get the information home to parents using various modalities who do not attend?

Technology (phone, email, DOJO, social media, school website, and parent portal) is only one component of our comprehensive communication plan that also includes newsletters, flyers, paper-based progress reports/report cards and school marquee. We will also upload the PDF of the over-arching conversation to the school's website, social media pages, Focus and attached to our bi-weekly parent communication. Also provide surveys.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following [Section 1118(c)(4)] • Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)]; • Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet [Section 1118(c)(4)(B)]; • If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children[Section 1118(c)(4)(C)]; and • If the schoolwide program plan under Section 1114 (b)(2) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit the parents comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency [Section 1118(c)(5)].

Example:

Timely information about the Title I programs [Section 1118(c)(4)(A)];

Our school is committed to ensuring that regular two-way, meaningful communication is established between all family members and school staff. When families engage with schools to support their student's learning, several positive effects can take place:

1. Students learn to read faster.
2. Students typically score higher on tests.
3. Students attend school on a more regular basis.
4. Students experience less disciplinary occurrences.
5. Students are more likely to graduate.

Title 1 information will be available for parents via the school's web page and through the school front office. Parents will be made aware of related events through the school's web page, monthly newsletter, teacher communication, marquee, and emails with minimal 2 weeks' notice. The communication plan will notify of upcoming events: purpose, time/date, audience, and activity. Most communication between school and home will be translated into Spanish, in addition to English.

Flexible Parent Meeting

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide Title I funds, transportation, childcare, or home visits, as such services related to parental involvement [Section 1118(c)(2)].

The school seeks parent input on which times are best to attend meetings and activities that meet the needs of parents through event/activity surveys, quarterly SAC meetings, and via the annual Parent and Family Engagement survey.

Childcare is provided for parent engagement events/activities that do not include children participating with their parent/guardian.

Translators for the ESOL population are also provided for events.

- Parent Conferences will be held in the evening as well as a virtual option to attend.
- Social workers are also available to do home visits if parents are unable to attend a meeting/conference.
- Activities will be on alternate days of the week as is appropriate for the nature of the activity.
- The SAC Committee will put to a vote an appropriate meeting time and day of the week for monthly meetings.
- Parent nights will be held on alternating nights to ensure more parents can attend. Meetings will cover yearly progress, school choice, and the rights of parents
- Admin team will stay behind at all meetings to answer any question parents or students may have.

- The parent survey will document the success of our flexibility.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent and family engagement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand [Section 1118(e)(5) and 1118(f)].

Family meetings will be scheduled in a flexible format (ex: different days and times) and when necessary, meetings will be duplicated at different times/days allowing for maximum family and community participation. Family meeting information will also be available (upon request) to those families unable to participate during face-to-face meetings as well as phone and email follow up. Additional strategies will be applied as the need arises on a case-by-case need.

As a school, we will do our best, if informed in advanced, to have materials in their family's native language and Spanish translators.

Our school facility is ADA accessible. If support is needed to accommodate a disability, appropriate arrangements will be made by the school.
