The objects described above have been given as a gift to Gibbs High School. By signing below, the donor certifies that he/she possesses the legal authority to make the donation to Gibbs High School. The donor transfers all rights he/she possesses, absolutely and forever, together with (when applicable) any copyrights therein and the right to copyright the same if donor owns those copyrights. Specific copyright conditions may apply in donations of bound, printed materials for the research library, or in donations of original artworks. Donated items whose intellectual rights belong to someone other than the donor retain those intellectual right ownership properties. Specific conditions, if any, are outlined in the above agreement. The gifts are accepted with the understanding that they may be used for research, exhibition, or otherwise traded or disposed of according to the Museum's policies and procedures. If this donation is intended as a tax deduction, it is the sole responsibility of the owner to establish the value of the gift prior to the donation, and to provide copies of any appraisal(s) made to the Museum for its records.
