About Clearwater Fundamental Middle School

- Principal: Stephanie Joyner
- Grade levels: 6-8
- Enrollment: 810
- School hours: 8:15 a.m.-2:45 p.m.
- Our fundamental philosophy promotes student responsibility and parental involvement. In our safe learning environment, CFMS students develop the necessary skills to excel in the 21st century in school and well beyond the learning environment to continue to succeed in college and work.
- Attractor/focus: Fundamental schools are schools of choice and emphasize principles that set them apart from non-fundamental schools. A strong emphasis is placed on the home and school working together to promote successful learning. Student responsibility, mandatory parental involvement and a back-to-basics philosophy is integral to our success.
- Mascot: Trailblazers
- Before and after school care: YMCA
- Teaching staff: Forty-seven percent of teachers have more than 15 years teaching experience. Eleven percent are National Board Certified. Eleven percent are Reading Endorsed. Thirty-six percent have advanced degrees.

District Vision: 100% Student Success

District Mission: Educate and prepare each student for college, career and life
