Dear Eagle Families,

In preparation for exams beginning tomorrow, I wanted to send families some helpful information. Please remember students must remain in their exam for the entire period so please do not call in a permit to leave for your student. We cannot interrupt the testing environment.

If a student has one exam but is exempting the other exam during a day, and they are bus riders, they should go to the cafeteria for the period in which they have no exam.

Please remind your student to have breakfast in the morning. Students have shown to perform better in tests if they have a healthy breakfast! Also, remind them we always have free breakfast here before school.

Finally, this week's exam schedule is below. Best of luck to our Eagle Scholars!

It follows that, if a student who is required to take the exam shows only for the portion of the period marked EXAM (they do not show for the portion marked class), they will be marked tardy.

Thank you and have a great evening.
