Student Procedures for BCHS Graduation

10 Steps to a Great Day

- Step 1: Be on time - student arrival time is 6:35am!!!
- Step 2: Parking – parking cost $10.00 per car ...
- Step 3: Cell Phone – leave it with your parent or family member
- Step 4: Report to Student Entry – this is a blue tent located on the northwest side of the Trop... Close to Gate 6
- Step 5: Clear security – at the gate you will be checked for appropriate dress. If you are in possession of a cell phone you will be asked to surrender your cell phone to school staff. You can pick up your cell phone from Ms. Davis at the end of the ceremony
- Step 6: Go immediately to your homeroom teacher table – pick up your reader card and medallion. Place the medallion around your neck and over your gown. The reader card will have your line up number on it in the upper corner
- Step 7: Immediately report to the student line up area in the hallway. Line up numerically based on your reader card number. The groups will be separated by female and male students. Staff will be present to assist you
- Step 8: Ceremony – March in with a partner, remain standing at your seat until after the pledge and National Anthem, after brief speeches – students will be called to the stage row by row, pay attention and follow the leader, when you reach the stage area present your reader card to Ms. Van Dora or Ms. Fabrizio, you will receive only your diploma cover at this time from Mr. Vigue! Return to your seat and be seated
- Step 9: Exit ceremony – rows will exit from front closest to the stage to the back... report back to your homeroom- you will get your packet that should include your diploma, a program, or a notice of obligation! CWMP Students will surrender your white diploma cover and exchange it for blue diploma cover at this time.
- Step 10: Exit the building – you will be asked to leave the hallway area immediately. You can socialize and take pictures outside of the Trop which will be in the Gate 5/6 area. Have your parents meet you there.
