Pinellas County High School Graduation 2021 Main Level

June 1-3, 2021

Things for us to review:

- Dress for females – white dress and white or beige colored shoes, no tennis shoes or flip flops
- Dress for males – collared dress shirt (preferably white) with a necktie (dark tie) and dark shoes (no tennis shoes or flip flops)
- Do not decorate your cap and gown
- Leave all electronics with family or in your car
- Get rid of gum before you arrive
- All students will enter the stadium through a check in process, if you are not “ready” you will be turned away!

Things for us to review:

- Lining up process – alphabetical by gender
- Your 3x5 card
- Cap – tassel should be on your right side
- Cords and medallions
- Program agenda:
 - Processional
 - National Anthem
 - Vigue welcome, intro of guests
 - Salutatorian speech
 - Valedictorian speech
 - Vigue speech
 - Presentation of diplomas (lots of hand shakes and smiles)
 - Tassels (right to left)
 - Recessional (order for exiting)

Things you and your family should not do:

- Bring balloons, flowers, noise makers, signs or strollers to the stadium (none will be allowed)
- Wear high heels
- Steal someone else's moment in the sun by calling out, etc.
- Anything that would not make everyone proud

After the ceremony:

- Hallway tables to pick up diploma or obligation notice. If you receive an obligation notice, you'll need to return to school to see the bookkeeper the day after graduation
- You'll exit through lower gate 6, so be sure to proceed to parking lot 1, 6 or 7 to meet your family for picture, etc.
- Be safe
