

Local/State College and Career Related Websites

Career Pathways / Tech Prep

A partnership for education between Pinellas County
Business & Industry

Know you need to have more than a high school diploma to get a good paying job but aren't ready for four years of college? Learn how you can save time and money and still get a good paying job. Visit St. Petersburg College's Career Pathways/Tech Prep website at:

<http://www.spcollege.edu/central/techprep>

Choices Planner

Learn about yourself with our assessments and connect your course plans, post-secondary options and career goals.

If you are still trying to figure out what type of career you should pursue or where you should continue your education after high school, this website is for YOU! It is free to all Florida residents.

www.flchoices.org

Inc., a not-for-profit corporation

Wondering what it is like to work in a particular career? Explore possibilities by visiting the Virtual Mentor web site. Here you can get information about possible careers and you can visit the Knowledgebase discussion forums. In these forums, you can communicate with people who work in the career area you are considering and ask questions about that occupation. Visit the web site at:

www.virtual-mentor.net

To enroll so that you can post questions to the Knowledgebase forum, click on the "Register" link.

College, Career, Life Planning

Still trying to decide what to do when you finish high school? This web site will motivate you to make a plan for your life and give you tips on choosing a career, finding and paying for a school, along with hundreds of useful links.

www.collegecareerlifeplanning.com

FACTS.org

Go Higher Florida,
education pays!

FACTS.org is Florida's Academic Counseling and Tracking for Students. Sponsored by the Department of Education and the Florida Center for Advising & Academic Support, this free online advising website helps students plan and track their education progress from middle school through college.

www.facts.org