Principal's report a/k/a State of the Royal Court Report:

- FHSA Academic Acknowledgements
 - Cross Country girls and boys have highest SPA in the State
- Academic Team
 - Won their recent tournament with the highest points in school history. Beat the second-place team by 100 points.
- Wrestling
 - 80 kids at tryouts. Rostered 60 between JV and Varsity. They are doing well.
- Boys Basketball
 - Currently 7&1 (both JV and Varsity) – huge improvement from prior years
- Soccer
 - Very competitive
- Girls Basketball
 - More competitive than in recent years. 21 girls between JV and Varsity.
- Baseball
 - Senior Josh Castellani signed as a D1 player to Clemson and is the first Hollins student to be eligible for NIL
- Testing
 - Need to get to 95% of students tested to get a school grade. Currently 9th grade at 94% and 10th grade at 92%
- School Grade
 - State gave school grade on provisional standards. Hollins was given a C
- Stakeholder survey is out – EVERYONE needs to do it. Need 400 responses.
- Positive Feedback
 - The Superintendent was very impressed with the school, testing center, getting students into class without a warning bell.
- FAFSA night – January 24th 2024
