

March 26, 2023

Dear Parents, Teachers, Staff and Community Members of Hollins High School this is Principal Robert Florio with your weekly update:

- Another great week at Hollins High School as we celebrated are Val and Sal and top 10 students with their family and friends we revel in the success of our students and school as we move to close out a great year
- Eva Levi won the Americanism Speech contest at the district level this week and won a $500 scholarship and will be heading to Jacksonville Florida in May to compete in the state level competition for a $2500 scholarship. If she wins, she will travel to Arizona in July for the national championship!
- Robotics qualified by winning state championship for World Championship in Houston Texas on April 19 – 11 students are headed to TX!! (I know I have communicated this previously – I might continue to say that forever – it is that incredibly special!
- Chau Huynh (11) won prestigious National Silver medal in this year's Scholastic Art and Writing Awards Competition. Teacher Ms. Heather Shell
- Isabella Calderon, Kali Campos, Riley Bjorge and Max Rideout won National Gold Medal in this year's Scholastic Art and Writing Awards Competition. Teacher Mr. Pineda
- Nikita Maltsev's Animation Etiquette and Body Language won entry into the prestigious Palm Beach Student Showcase – only the third time at Hollins AEA has won entrance – first time in Animation – which is a category that competes with colleges including Ringling College of Art and Design – one of the best animation schools in the country!
- JROTC competed in the Area 9 District Drill Championship this weekend at Armwood HS in Tampa and won the overall championship with 4 squads winning first place and 12 out of 18 squads finishing in the top three in all competitions. The entire Drill team boy guys and girls have qualified for States on April 15 – Congratulations to our cadets and leaders Sergeant Major Rivera Rivera and Major Fawthrop

Enjoy the rest of your evening surrounded by good friends and family in good health and high spirits!

See you at the Top!