Good Evening Eagle Families

Please read this email carefully as it details our high stakes testing plan for next week. We are flipping the order of the class periods for the second day of each testing, so students have equal amounts of time in all their classes and they do not miss periods 1-3 both days. The flipped schedule is for all students grades 9-12. If your student has a dual enrollment/PVS/FLVS class either in the beginning or at the end of the day which causes them to miss classes, please ask them to tell their teachers in advance and show the teachers a copy of their schedule so they may be counted in attendance.

May 3rd – 10th grade face to face student testing (part 1). Bell schedule – 1,2,3,4,5,6,7

10th grade MyPCS students will come in at 10:30 AM to test

May 4th – 10th grade face to face student testing (part 2). Bell schedule – 7,6,5,4,3,2,1

10th grade MyPCS students will come in at 10:30 AM to test

May 5th – 9th grade face to face student testing (part 1). Bell schedule – 1,2,3,4,5,6,7

9th grade MyPCS students will come in at 10:30 AM to test

May 6th – 9th grade face to face student testing (part 2). Bell schedule – 7,6,5,4,3,2,1

9th grade MyPCS students will come in at 10:30 AM to test

Students must take both parts for the test to count. Remember, our 9th and 10th grade students still need to pass this test as part of their graduation requirement.

Parents of Juniors,

There will be a virtual college fair on May 12 at 6pm with representatives from out of state colleges who live and work in the state of Florida and can be your guide into out-of-state college admissions. To register for this college fair, please visit the link below:
