Good Evening Eagle Families,

Welcome to the 2020-2021 school year! The beginning to this school year will be unlike any other. Your teachers, and school staff have worked tirelessly to prepare for this unique school year!

Canvas is a new learning system for us and your teachers have worked day and night to become Canvas capable! Despite the many hours of preparing for your students, I am sure we will have complications. I am asking families to please be patient the first couple of school days as we work through the inevitable challenges and technical issues.

Our MyPCS online students (and traditional) may face technical difficulties and some glitches. Please give us some time to work through these concerns and they will be resolved as soon as we are able to address them. In the rare case of a substitute teacher, please know the substitute teacher must be provided permissions in the Canvas system for their classes, so if your student signs into the class, and the teacher is not immediately there, please stay signed in and they should soon appear. In most cases there will be work already assigned in Canvas and your student should work on the assignment.

School Counselor News!

Mrs. Harris is out on maternity leave (rejoining us early September) and Mrs. Kopacz recently retired. We will surely miss her! We will be replacing her as soon as possible but here is the latest Alpha breakdown for your reference:
