Elevate Your Reading Skills for Free with SPC Read Up

St. Petersburg College (SPC) is excited to offer free tutoring services to high school reading scholars through a program called SPC Read Up.

Trained Read Up tutors meet with students two hours a week on campus after school to help students complete their reading class assignments, including Reading Plus work.

Through one-on-one and small group instruction, Read Up tutors help scholars improve their reading skills, their grades, and their self-esteem.
