Beth Brock "Buddy" Scholarship

Beth Brock, a former employee, of Largo HS was a person who gave of herself to others and did not want credit for her many kind acts. She developed relationships with students of Largo High School and would extend kindnesses and helped quietly. Whether it be an ear to listen, or a meal for a hungry student, she would make sure our students had what they needed to succeed. It is by her example that her family has established a scholarship in her name. The Beth Brock "Buddy" Scholarship is seeking applications from Largo High School Seniors who intend on furthering their education after High School. Your future education can be to a College, University, Technical School or other.
