

This is Julie Finley, your Assistant Principal, with the Sunday call out.

- As we begin our second semester, we wanted to remind all families and students that dress code must be adhered to, if you choose to come to school outside of dress code a consequence will be provided. Please check our school website for the detailed dress code, but a few areas that are constant area of concern are:
 - NO pajamas can be worn (regardless of pockets or not), or slippers
 - If leggings are worn, the shirt must reach mid-thigh
 - Tops cannot show mid-drifts
 - Shoes must have a back on them, including crocs.
- Baseball arm care throwing starts Monday, January 8th when we return. All participants must complete the athletic paperwork and be approved by Mrs. Copello. This event will take place from 6:00pm – 7:00pm on Osceola Baseball field. Email Coach Futch at futchs@pcsb.org with any questions.

The Central Europe trip for summer 2025 is now open for enrollment, and the spots are filling up fast. If you are interested, please either contact Mr. Yarbrough at yarbroughb@pcsb.org or go to the registration website linked in the accompanying email. <https://www.eftours.com/2661215CF> .

Track and Field practice/tryouts begin on Monday, 1/29. We will also be having one week of conditioning before tryouts, starting Monday, 1/22. It is highly encouraged for anyone trying out for Track, to attend this week of conditioning. All paperwork must be completed to attend. Please see Coach Eagleson or Coach Blakeney with any questions.

- Spring sports are around the corner. If you have not submitted paperwork for the 2023-24 school year and have been cleared, please do so ASAP. With another semester ending, a GPA eligibility check will be done on 1/15 to reestablish eligibility. 9th graders will now have to meet the unweighted GPA requirement of 2.0 to participate in athletics. If you have any questions, please email Michele Copello at CopelloM@pcsb.org.
