ABOUT US

Midtown Academy's school wide Center for Cultural Arts K-5, provides students with an engaging, hands-on, brains-on, learning environment that expands beyond our classroom walls into the St. Petersburg community.

Our Center for Literacy Innovation begins in 1st grade and provides a structured and innovative reading approach to literacy. Designed for students with Dyslexia and/or who demonstrate characteristics of Dyslexia, this program provides a systemic, multi- sensory approach to literacy instruction with opportunities for reading, writing and math remediation.

Students in our Center for Gifted Studies receive full-time gifted services in homogenous classes with gifted endorsed teachers beginning in 1st grade. Students focus on divergent thinking strategies, social emotional development and intellectually stimulating curriculum.
