Week of August 18, 2025

A Brief Message from the Principal

Dear Jaguar Households,

Thank you to your children and you for an awesome first week of school. Our little Jaguars are quickly getting settled in with their routines and teachers. Thank you for your attendance at Open House last Thursday. I hope you were able to learn about your child(ren)'s teachers and their classroom processes and expectations. Making sure lines of communication are open between you and the teachers for clarification will ensure a positive and productive school year for your child.

Entering our second week of the school year, our goal is transition from the "getting to know you" phase of school to the process of growing your child(ren) academically as well as socially and emotionally.

Please take a look at the content within this newsletter for general reminders and updates. Have a great week!

With enthusiasm and gratitude,

Carlmon Jones
