Happenings in the Library

The last week of January was Literacy Week. Thanks to all who participated in the Recycled Book Character Competition! The projects will be displayed in the Media Center for the month of February.

This month, we will be hosting our 2nd Scholastic Book Fair from February 10 - 14. Please sign up for the eWallet to make it easier for your child to purchase books. You can even have other family members or friends donate to the eWallet. The theme for this book fair is For the Love of Reading.

Students have been learning about Digital Responsibility this year in the library. The lessons have been on topics such as cyberbullying, staying safe on websites, balancing their time on devices and recognizing fake images online.

The Battle of the Books school competition will be held the 2nd week of March. Please encourage your 3rd, 4th or 5th grader to sign up and read the 5 books that will be used in the Battle. The titles are: The Aquanaut, The Shelterlings, Future Hero: Race to Fire Mountain, The Good Sports League: The Ultimate Goal and Manatee Summer.
