

JOHN HOPKINS MIDDLE SCHOOL

Home of the Trojans

Center for Gifted Studies

Our Principal...

Mr. Carlmon Jones

701 16th Street South, St. Petersburg, FL 33705 | 727.893.2400 | pcsb.org/hopkins-ms

John Hopkins' Center for Gifted Studies offers an enriching environment with education opportunities for 6th grade gifted students to develop talent, creativity, and critical thinking skills. Using the arts as a catalyst to engage students, CGS meets the unique academic and socio-emotional needs of gifted learners in rigorous, interdisciplinary courses. The 'Center for Gifted' is a magnet-within-a-magnet, acting as a strand of our 'Center for Arts' magnet program.

Clubs and Competitions Not limited to the following:

- National Junior Honor Society
- Chess Club
- Girlfriends
- 5000 Rolemodels
- Poetry Club
- Entrepreneur Club
- Comic Book Club
- Hispanic Club
- Geography Bee
- Spelling Bee
- Mighty Mu
- Science Olympiad

Other Electives

- Spanish
- Information & Communication Technology (ICT)
- Intro to Law / Criminal Justice
- Peer Counseling
- AVID

Sports

- Volleyball
- Cheerleading
- Basketball
- Track & Field

Magnet Coordinator: Kim Vongsyprasom
vongsyprasomk@pcsb.org | 727.893.2400 x2036

Arts Focus Areas

- Band
- Chorus
- Orchestra
- Visual Art
- Theatre
- Dance

Students in the gifted program will participate in one of the Center for the Arts focus areas.

JOHN HOPKINS MIDDLE

JHMS

HOME OF THE TROJANS