If it’s working don’t fix it, otherwise …

- What changes are we going to make based on our findings?
- What exactly are we going to do?
- What were the results?
- When and how did we do it?
Together…We can make a difference!

“In an increasingly complex world, sometimes old questions require new answers.”
Empowerment through partnering with key stakeholders to increase student success…

We can make a difference through collaborative efforts and the commitment to make a difference for children, families, and schools.
