Marzano Focused School Leader Evaluation Model

DOMAIN 1

A Data-Driven Focus on School Improvement

Element 1:
The school leader ensures the appropriate use of data to develop critical goals focused on improving student achievement at the school.

Element 2:
The school leader ensures appropriate analysis and interpretation of data are used to monitor the progress of each student toward meeting achievement goals.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures the appropriate implementation of interventions and supportive practices to help each student meet achievement goals.

DOMAIN 2

Instruction of a Viable and Guaranteed Curriculum

Element 1:
The school leader provides a clear vision for how instruction should be addressed in the school.

Element 2:
The school leader uses knowledge of the predominant instructional practices in the school to improve teaching.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures that school curriculum and accompanying assessments align with state and district standards.

Element 4:
The school leader ensures that school curriculum is focused on essential standards so it can be taught in the time available to teachers.

Element 5:
The school leader ensures that each student has equal opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum.

DOMAIN 3

Continuous Development of Teachers and Staff

Element 1:
The school leader effectively hires, supports and retains personnel who continually demonstrate growth through reflection and growth plans.

Element 2:
The school leader uses multiple sources of data to provide teachers with ongoing evaluations of their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses that are consistent with student achievement data.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures that teachers and staff are provided with job-embedded professional development to optimize professional capacity and support their growth goals.
Marzano Focused School Leader Evaluation Model

Domain 4: Community of Care and Collaboration

Element 1:
The school leader ensures that teachers work in collaborative groups to plan and discuss effective instruction, curriculum, assessments, and the achievement of each student.

Element 2:
The school leader ensures a workplace where teachers have roles in the decision-making process regarding school planning, initiatives, and procedures to maximize the effectiveness of the school.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures equity in a child-centered school with input from staff, students, parents, and the community.

Element 4:
The school leader acknowledges the successes of the school and celebrates the diversity and culture of each student.

Domain 5: Core Values

Element 1:
The school leader is transparent, communicates effectively, and continues to demonstrate professional growth.

Element 2:
The school leader has the trust of the staff and school community that all decisions are guided by what is best for each student.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures that the school is perceived as safe and culturally responsive.

Domain 6: Resource Management

Element 1:
The school leader ensures that management of the fiscal, technological, and physical resources of the school supports effective instruction and achievement of each student.

Element 2:
The school leader utilizes systematic processes to engage district and external entities in support of school improvement.

Element 3:
The school leader ensures compliance to district, state, and federal rules and regulations to support effective instruction and achievement of each student.
Marzano Focused School Leader Evaluation Model

Domain I: A Data-Driven Focus on School Improvement

I(1): The school leader ensures the appropriate use of data to develop critical goals focused on improving student achievement at the school.

Desired Effect: Everyone understands the school’s most critical goals for improving student achievement.

Sample Evidences for Element 1 of Domain I

- Published goals focus on a plan for eliminating the achievement gap for each student
- Goals support the vision and mission of the school
- School improvement goals are established as a percentage of students who will score at a proficient or higher level on state assessments or benchmark assessments
- Multiple sources of data are used to develop critical goals
- School-wide achievement goals are posted and discussed regularly at faculty and staff gatherings
- Written goals address the most critical and severe achievement deficiencies
- Written timelines contain specific benchmarks for each goal including who provides support for achieving the goal
- A school improvement or strategic plan delineates the critical goals
- Faculty and staff can explain how goals support and eliminate differences in achievement for students at different socioeconomic levels, English learners, and students with disabilities
- Faculty and staff can describe why the identified school-wide achievement goals are the most critical
- Data are available to identify how the most critical achievement goals of the school are supported
I(2): The school leader ensures appropriate analysis and interpretation of data are used to monitor the progress of each student toward meeting achievement goals.

Desired Effect: Data confirm students are making progress towards meeting their achievement goals.

Sample Evidences for Element 2 of Domain I

- Reports, charts, graphs, and other relevant data for each student are available for tracking status and growth
- Data are routinely analyzed for learning gaps
- Individual student results from multiple types of assessments are regularly reported and used (e.g. classroom formative, benchmark, summative/end of year)
- Individual student reports, graphs, and charts are regularly updated to track the progress of each student
- Teachers regularly meet to analyze school growth data for individual students
- School leadership teams regularly meet to analyze individual student performance
- Teachers utilize multiple sources of individual student data in planning to close achievement gaps
- Teachers regularly analyze data of their individual students, including all subgroups
- Students keep data logs regarding their individual goals and for tracking progress
- Student-led conferences focus on the student’s achievement goals
- Parents have access to student achievement data systems to track student progress
- Parent-teacher conferences focus on individual student goals and progress
- Teacher plans address the learning goals of their students
- Each student has recorded achievement goals for classroom formative, benchmark, and summative assessments
I(3): The school leader ensures the appropriate implementation of interventions and supportive practices to help each student meet achievement goals.

 Desired Effect: Data confirm interventions help each student meet achievement goals.

<td>The school leader does not attempt to ensure the appropriate implementation of interventions and supportive practices to help each student meet achievement goals.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 3 of Domain I

- Processes are in place to identify students who need interventions
- Interventions take place during the school day or in extended day programs (e.g. Saturday school, summer school)
- Response to intervention measures and/or multi-tiered systems of support are in place and routinely measured for producing results
- Enrichment programs are in place
- Intervention, including enrichment, programs are constantly monitored to measure their effect on student achievement
- Completion rates of programs designed to enhance academic achievement are monitored (e.g. gifted and talented, advanced placement, STEM, etc.)
- Processes for ongoing progress monitoring are used to appropriately place students and, when appropriate, redirect students into intervention support groups
- Push-in or other in-class interventions are utilized when appropriate
- Interventionist and classroom teachers regularly work together to track student progress
- Teachers can explain how implemented interventions help individual students meet their goals
- Students and/or parents can identify how interventions helped close their achievement gap
Domain II: Instruction of a Viable and Guaranteed Curriculum

II(1): The school leader provides a clear vision for how instruction should be addressed in the school.

Desired Effect: Teachers use the instructional model.

</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 1 of Domain II

- A written document articulating the school-wide model of instruction is in place
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their professional learning communities and in faculty and/or department meetings
- The school-wide language of instruction is used regularly by faculty in their informal conversations
- Professional development opportunities are provided for new and experienced teachers regarding the school-wide model of instruction
- Implementation of the instructional model is evident in daily classroom instruction
- Intentional planning to use the instructional model is evident in teacher lesson plans
- New initiatives are prioritized and limited in number to support the instructional model
- Teachers can describe the major components of the school-wide model of instruction
- Teachers can explain how strategies in the instructional framework promote learning for the school’s diverse population
- Data are available to support teacher implementation of the instructional model (e.g. lesson plans, observations, PLC notes)
- The vision for instruction is shared throughout the school and community
II(2): The school leader uses knowledge of the predominant instructional practices in the school to improve teaching.

Desired Effect: Teachers improve instructional practices when leader provides feedback regarding predominant instructional practices.

<tr>
<td>Not Using (0)</td>
<td>The school leader does not attempt to use knowledge of the predominant instructional practices in the school to improve teaching.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 2 of Domain II

- Walk-through or other observation data are aggregated to disclose predominant instructional practices in the school
- Accurate feedback is provided to each teacher regarding instructional practices
- Systems are in place to monitor the effect of predominant instructional practices for each subgroup
- Feedback is provided to each teacher regarding instructional practices needed to address learning gaps and diverse student populations
- Predominant instructional practices and trends are documented and regularly shared with teachers
- Effective instructional practices and problems of practice are accurately described by the school leader
- Data shows teachers implement new instructional strategies when provided feedback
- Data regarding predominant instructional practices are used to inform professional development opportunities
- Observation data confirm that teachers improve instructional practices
- Student achievement data improves as teachers improve in the use of instructional strategies
- Teachers can describe the predominant instructional practices used in the school and how they affect student achievement
II(3): The school leader ensures that the school curriculum and accompanying assessments align with state and district standards.

Desired Effect: Assessments accurately measure student progress towards achieving the adopted standards.

<td>The school leader does not attempt to ensure that the school curriculum and accompanying assessments align with state and district standards.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 3 of Domain II

- An understanding of the alignment of curriculum and assessments is demonstrated by the school leader
- Curriculum documents are in place that correlate the written curriculum to state and district standards
- Resources to support curriculum align to standards
- Rubrics or scales are in place that clearly delineate student levels of performance on essential standards
- Classroom/formative, benchmark, and summative/end of year assessment data are consistently analyzed for alignment to standards
- School teams regularly analyze the relationship between the written curriculum/standards, taught curriculum, and assessments, and makes adaptations when needed
- Assessments accurately measure adopted standards
- Interventions are in place when standards are required and not incorporated
- Implemented assessments reflect knowledge of child development and learning theories
- Teachers can describe the essential standards for their subject area and/or grade level
II(4): The school leader ensures that school curriculum is focused on essential standards so it can be taught in the time available to teachers.

 Desired Effect: Teachers have time to teach the core or essential standards.

<td>Not Using (0)</td>
<td>The school leader does not attempt to ensure that the school curriculum is focused on essential standards so it can be taught in the time available to teachers.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 4 of Domain II

- A written list of essential standards is in place and available to each teacher
- Written curriculum has been unpacked in such a manner that essential elements/standards have been identified
- A curriculum audit has been conducted that delineates how much time it would take to adequately address the essential standards
- Teams regularly meet to discuss the progression and viability of documents that articulate essential content and timing of delivery (e.g. pacing guides, curriculum maps)
- Time available for specific classes and courses meets the state or district specifications for those classes and courses
- Schedules are protected to allow teachers time to teach the essential curriculum/standards
- A plan is in place to monitor that the essential curriculum is taught in the time available to teachers
- Teachers can describe which elements are essential and can be taught in the scheduled time
- Students report they have time to learn the essential curriculum/standards
- Processes are implemented at the school to ensure teachers teach the essential curriculum/standards
- Data are available to show that teachers teach the essential curriculum/standards
- Technology systems support essential standards
II(5): The school leader ensures that each student has equal opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum.

Desired Effect: Each teacher teaches the essential standards so every student has the opportunity to learn the essential standards

<table>

<td>The school leader does not attempt to ensure that each student has equal opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 5 of Domain II

- Tracking systems are in place that examine each student’s access to the essential elements/standards of the curriculum
- Parents are aware of their child’s current access to the essential/standards elements of the curriculum
- Each student has equal access to advanced placement or other rigorous courses
- Each student has a prescribed program of study that documents access to appropriate courses
- Data are available to show teachers have completed appropriate content area training in their subject area courses
- Each student has equal access to courses that directly address the essential elements/standards of the required curriculum
- Data are available to verify student achievement in critical content and standards
- Teachers can describe the content strategies that result in the highest student learning for specific courses and topics
- Student data/feedback reveal that they are given the opportunity to learn the critical content of the curriculum
- Data are available to show that students are ready to be contributing members of society and participate in a global community (e.g. graduation rates, CTE certifications, post-graduation enrollment)
- Data are available to show that students are college and career ready
- Appropriate technology is in place to support and enhance instruction and curriculum
- The process in place to ensure that each student has an equal opportunity to learn the critical content/standards can be explained by the school leader
Domain III: Continuous Development of Teachers and Staff

</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 1 of Domain III

- Each teacher provides written pedagogical growth goals
- Teachers regularly track their progress towards meeting pedagogical growth goals
- Evaluation results, growth plans, and interventions for struggling personnel are available
- Meetings are regularly scheduled with personnel regarding their growth goals and tracking progress
- A teacher induction program is in place to support new teachers
- Teacher leaders are identified, supported, and provided opportunities to develop
- Personnel records reveal the leader hires and retains effective personnel
- Standardized interview processes and/or protocols are utilized
- Nondiscriminatory hiring practices are evident
- Personnel records document that support system(s) are utilized to ensure personnel meet their goals
- Teachers can describe their progress on their pedagogical growth goals
- Staff members demonstrate continuous growth in their area of responsibility
- Personnel can share documented examples of how reflection has improved their craft
III(2): The school leader uses multiple sources of data to provide teachers with ongoing evaluations of their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses that are consistent with student achievement data.

Desired Effect: Teacher observation/evaluation data are consistent with student achievement data.

</tbody>
</table>

Sample Evidences for Element 2 of Domain III

- Specific evaluation scales are in place to provide teachers accurate feedback on their pedagogical strengths and weaknesses
- Teacher feedback and evaluation data are based on multiple sources of information including but not limited to: direct observation, teacher self-report, analysis of teacher performance as captured on video, student reports on teacher effectiveness, and peer feedback to teachers
- A schedule of teacher observations is in place to ensure all observations are completed in the designated timeframe
- Teacher evaluation data are regularly used as the subject of conversation between school leaders and teachers
- Data show the school leader provides frequent observations and meaningful feedback to teachers
- Data are available to support that teacher evaluations are consistent with student achievement data
- Achievement data from classroom formative, benchmark and/or summative/end of year assessments are consistent with teacher evaluation feedback
- Teachers can describe how implementation of specific instructional strategies affects student achievement
- When observation data are not consistent with student achievement data, the leader works to update accuracy in assigning observational feedback
- When observation data reveal inconsistencies with student achievement data, the leader provides teachers with appropriate support and interventions
III(3): The school leader ensures that teachers and staff are provided with job-embedded professional development to optimize professional capacity and support their growth goals.

Desired Effect: Teachers and staff improve their skills as a result of attending professional development.

<table>

Sample Evidences for Element 3 of Domain III

- Teachers and staff have ongoing opportunities to participate in job-embedded professional development or training
- Online professional development courses and resources are available to teachers and staff regarding their growth goals
- Teachers and staff participation in professional development activities is recorded and tracked
- Teacher-led professional development is available to teachers regarding their instructional growth goals
- Instructional coaching is available to teachers to help them achieve their instructional growth goals
- Data are collected linking the effectiveness of professional development/training to the improvement of teacher and/or staff practices
- Data are available documenting how deliberate practice is improving teacher performance
- Teachers and staff can describe how professional development supports attainment of growth goals
- Teachers and staff implement new strategies after attending professional development
- Interventions are documented for staff who do not utilize professional development opportunities
- Interventions are in place to support personnel who do not continue to grow in their area of responsibility
Domain IV: Community of Care and Collaboration

IV(1): The school leader ensures that teachers work in collaborative groups to plan and discuss effective instruction, curriculum, assessments, and the achievement of each student.

Sample Evidences for Element 1 of Domain IV

- Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) are in place and meet regularly
- PLCs have written goals
- Progress of PLCs towards their goals is regularly examined by the school leader
- Classroom assessments are created by PLCs
- Formative student achievement and growth data are analyzed by PLCs
- Teachers have opportunities to observe other teachers
- Teachers work collaboratively to write standards-based unit plans and assessments
- Teachers unpack standards and write learning targets demonstrating a progression of knowledge
- Teachers routinely examine student work for alignment to standards
- Progress of each PLC team toward reaching its goals is regularly reviewed
- To maintain a focus on student achievement, the school leader collects and reviews minutes, notes, and goals from PLC meetings
- Teachers can explain how being a member of a PLC has helped them grow their pedagogy
- Teachers can explain the process the PLC uses to analyze data to identify appropriate instructional practices
- PLCs that are working effectively or ineffectively are identified by the school leader
- Ongoing interventions are in place for teams or teachers who do not work as a PLC
- Student data reveal that PLCs are enhancing student achievement
IV(2): The school leader ensures a workplace where teachers have roles in the decision-making process regarding school planning, initiatives, and procedures to maximize the effectiveness of the school.

Sample Evidences for Element 2 of Domain IV

- Teachers are made aware of the specific types of decisions in which they will have direct input
- Data-gathering techniques are in place to collect information from teachers
- Notes and reports are in place that describe how teacher input was used when making specific decisions or changes
- Virtual tools are utilized to collect and report teacher opinions regarding specific decisions (e.g. online surveys)
- Groups of teachers are selected and utilized to provide input regarding specific decisions
- Teacher leaders are enabled to proactively initiate, plan, implement, and monitor projects
- The school leadership team has critical roles in facilitating school initiatives
- Data are available to show how input is used by the school leader
- Teachers report that their input is valued and taken into consideration by the school leader
- Data are available to reveal the school improves its overall effectiveness through a shared decision-making process
- School leader can describe the systematic processes in place to solicit teacher input
- Initiatives are analyzed to evaluate their effect on teaching and learning
