If seeking licensure or certification, applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. In addition, fingerprint/background clearance is required.

¹ MOU 8288 & 8289: This scholarship is only valid for those applicants who are participating in a GCU College of Education or Secondary Education Emphasis master's degree program, offered online, and who submit a completed application to start their program on or before December 31, 2023. If you enroll in a master's degree program through any of the College of Education or Secondary Education Emphasis degree programs offered online, Grand Canyon University will offer you 18% off the tuition per course for your program. This scholarship will be applied at the same time the tuition charges occur. This scholarship cannot be used in conjunction with any other GCU scholarships/awards. This scholarship will be applied toward your tuition only and does not include fees (i.e., Canyon Connect, Technology, etc).

² Excluding observational and practice-based experiences, and student teaching.

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCcommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
