FIND YOUR PURPOSE

Online Bachelor's or Master's Degrees at GCU's National Center for Teacher Preparation

Grand Canyon University (GCU) is addressing America's teacher shortage with generous scholarships. Our pledge is to provide affordable and accessible education for aspiring educators.

Why Choose GCU?

Affordable:

- Generous New Scholarships: Opportunities for qualifying school district employees seeking initial teacher licensure in select online bachelor's or master's degrees in education

Flexible:

- Online Coursework: One class at a time online,¹ allowing you to network with peers and faculty nationwide
- Local Field Experiences: Field experience hours and student teaching opportunities in your current district²

Supportive:

- Quick Transcript Evaluations: Unofficial evaluation within 24 business hours after submitting transcripts for a personalized graduation plan including a preliminary schedule and anticipated date of graduation, provided the schedule is followed
- Academic Support: Guidance around licensure prep — including support with teacher certification exams
- After College: Lifelong teaching support and resources thanks to GCU's College of Education Promise

Over 85 GCU alumni have been recognized in the field of education, including as Superintendent, Administrator or Teacher of the Year award recipients (as of May 2023).

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

If seeking licensure or certification, applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. In addition, fingerprint and background clearance is required.

¹Excluding observational, practice-based experiences and student teaching.

²Candidates currently in paid education positions may be eligible to complete practicum/field experience hours, and/or student teaching in their paid role if the school district setting aligns with the setting required in the candidate's program of study/course, if the candidate has an appropriately certified mentor available at the accredited school site, and if the candidate is able to fulfill all expectations, including the completion of all course assignments.

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCcommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Please note, not all GCU programs are available in all states and in all learning modalities. Program availability is contingent on student enrollment.
