Jamerson’s 180 days of kindness: We believe that our world needs A LOT more kindness! We are challenging the scholars, staff, parents and families to 180 days of kindness. There are 180 days of school each year and we are challenging you to be kind each and every day. Each day you will learn about a new way to be kind, you will learn about different customs from around the world, and/or you will learn something new each day about how to be kind. How to be kind to yourself, how to be kind to others, even how to be kind to our world. We hope that you take us up on our challenge and that by the end of our 180 days together this school and community will be the kindest ever! Some days it may be easy, some days could be a bit more challenging, but either way, it is so worth it-love and kindness need to win! So, let’s begin...

Day 57: November 4th – (really on the 2nd) Look for circles day: Look For Circles Day is today. Go forth, in search of circles. We suspect you will find them everywhere. Looking for circles, is a lot like swimming in a round pool. You go round and round. There’s a lots of splashing. But, you don’t get anywhere. We hope that your search will make you very happy. We hope you take a circuituitous route to a happy and fun filled Look For Circles Day!

Day 58: November 5th - Write a thank-you note to your teacher: It is important to thank people in your life who do things for you. Today, take the time to write a thank-you note to your teachers and let them know how much you appreciate all they have done for you this year so far. There will be Thank you notes in your teacher’s mailbox for you to fill out, or you can make your own!

Day 59: November 6th- Write a thank-you note to your friends and/or family: Take some time today to write thank you notes to your friends and/or family members to let them know how much you appreciate them! Again, there will be notes in your teacher’s mailbox or you can make your own!

Day 60: November 7th- Write a thank-you note to someone new: Think about someone that you may not have written a thank-you note for and write a note to them! Think real hard who has done something kind to you or has been nice to you and write them a note!

Day 61: November 8th- Forget-me-not day: Forget-Me-Not Day is a day to remember family, friends, and loved ones. People use this day to get in touch with family, friends and loved ones, especially those who we haven’t seen in a while. You don’t want them to forget you, do you!? Here are some great ways to celebrate National Forget Me Not Day:

- Send Forget Me Not flowers to people you haven't seen in a while.
- Give Forget Me Not flower seed packets to family and friends. This is very popular. The seed packets are very inexpensive and easy to mail.
- Phone people you haven't seen in a while and wish them a happy National Forget Me Not Day. They will get the message.
