Principals report:

- Decision to move SAC to 2pm to increase student and teacher involvement
- Hollins had over a 90% test rate last school year. Testing was not required but the school opted so that there would be comparable baseline data.
 - Decrease in performance (25pt decrease)
 - All but 2 of the 14 High Schools saw a decreased
 - Assessment measured across 10 areas. 5 maintained or increased based on prior year and 5 decreased.
- 2nd Highest algebra scores in the district, only behind Palm Harbor
- School goal to increase to an A or a B grade this year
- Attendance rate last year was tough to manage with e-learning
- 50% of Freshman are below level for math and reading
 - Goal is to identify those students and test them appropriately to drive positive gains
 - Winning Wednesday (school wide literacy focus) include use of planner and staff support
- Focus for school: Be Present, Be Prompt and Be Pleasant
- Emphasize the significance of the role/ relationship between students and staff to drive student success
 - 1,851 students (before the 10 day count): needed to add additional lunch opportunities (carts) throughout the campus
 - Courtyard under construction (ideally ready for January)
 - Tardy Policy has kids in class on time
 - Almost fully staffed (fully staffed on instructional roles)
 - Sports are operating at full capacity (football started, 50 girls tried out for volleyball – two teams 15 JV, 15 V)
 - See attached 2021-2022 HHS School Improvement Goals
