Open Forum:

- Peyton Briggs from JROTC explained how JROTC was recognized for their help with Toys for Tots. Peyton explained how parents come and pick out several toys for their children. Thirty-two cadets participated in this activity, along with five parents. Cadets earned service ribbons and volunteer hours for the JROTC program. The cadets worked from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Toys for Tots program served 1400 families with children ages ranging from infants to 13 years old.
- Laura DeStasio questioned dual enrollment. Mr. Zebley advised that student needs to set up an appointment to meet with their guidance counselor or Mr. Knellinger to better answer that question.

Next Meeting: February 10, 2009
