SEMINOLE HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH IV HONORS

SUMMER READING/DIALECTICAL JOURNALS 2019 SHS

Summer Reading Text

You will read and complete a Dialectical Journal for the following: Fast Food Nation Eric Schlosser, Eric Schlosser charts the fast food industry's enormous impact on our health, landscape, economy, politics and culture as he transforms the way America thinks about what it eats.

ISBN-13: 9780594899792

To secure Fast Food Nation, honors students, as outlined in SHS' Curriculum Guide, should purchase this book (print or electronic) so they can highlight and annotate the texts (electronic versions allow students to annotate using many built-in apps). Students can secure the book via a variety of vendors such as Barnes and Noble and Amazon.

Steps for completing the Dialectical Journals for Each Selection

As you read, choose 25 passages/quotations that stand out to you and come from the beginning, middle, and end of the book. Record them in the left-hand column of a T-chart (ALWAYS include page numbers, or record Locator #s if text is electronic). In the right column, write your response to the passage/quotation (ideas/insights on each passage). Use the sentence starters provided to guide your responses.

You may use loose-leaf paper, though word-processing the Dialectical Journal is best. Again, you need 25 entries. See the sample Dialectical Journal entry below: Example from a different text: Parallel Journeys by Eleanor Ayer

Germany no longer was a free country. But few people seemed to care. Men were back at work earning money once again.
Families had food on the table and clothes in the closet. For most, these benefits were much more important than the right to privacy or the right to speak in public. No one cared (or dared) to speak out against Adolf Hitler (Chapter 1, page 5).

My Response

It's hard to understand why people would give up their freedoms; however, this quote makes you realize that sometimes survival is more important than freedom. This is probably how Hitler was able to gain power so quickly. At this time in history, many countries were experiencing Depressions. All the people wanted was money for food and other basic necessities.

Sentence Starters for the Dialectical Journal

The following sentence starters will help you to write journal entries that require you to think on the levels below.

LEVELS OF COGNITION

LEVEL 4—Analysis—Students analyze constituent elements by identifying motives or causes, making inferences, and finding evidence to support generalizations.

LEVEL 5—Synthesis—Students combine ideas in unique ways such as solving problems, making predictions, or producing original communications.

LEVEL 6—Evaluate—Students present opinions, judge the validity of ideas or quality of work.

SENTENCE STARTERS

- _____(situation or character in the story) is similar to ...(another character or situation in the story) because ...
- I think ... will happen because...
- I think...(character, situation, statement, or occurrence) is important to the story because ...
- This...(statement, story, line) is an example of ...(literary device). It is important because...
- ____(character, situation, issue, or action from the story) reminds me of...(person, situation, issue, or story from your own life) because...
- If this... had happened, the story would have changed in the following way.
- I disapprove of... (character, action, or policy within the story) because...
- (scene, dialogue, or character) should have been deleted from the story because...
- The author used...(literary device) to produce... (effect).
- The author included... (character, scene, action, or dialogue) to show...
- If I could... (an action related the story), I would
- This statement means ___. It helps the story by ______
- A solution to (the story's conflict) would be to _____ (your answer).
- ____ (character) seems to be ____ (description of character's personality, feelings, emotions, and actions). For this reason, I think __ (your thoughts about the character and their importance to the story).