Summer Assignment

Choose and read three (3) works from the list below. In a composition book, keep a dialectical journal with at least five (5) entries for each work — due the first session of class. That is 15 dialectical journal entries total, to be clear. Be prepared for a writing assignment based on these works the first session of class.

Dialectical Journal Expectations

- Write by hand in pen in a composition book.
- At the top of the page give the quote or passage you are responding to with its chapter and page number.
- Below, in paragraph form, synthesize your understanding of the details of the texts.
- Each entry is worth 10 points and must be a solid paragraph of 5 or more sentences with integrated quotes.
- Your response may be analytical, critical, or personal (mix these up). No summarizing, please.
- One suggestion is to start with a personal reaction to the text. Then assume that the author composed these words in a way to purposefully make you have that reaction. Then analyze the words to discover how the author manipulated them to affect you in a certain way.
- Note that a certain degree of informality is permitted, perhaps even necessary. However, your diction should be elevated and academic: IB-worthy, in essence. Think of the dialectical journal as an ongoing blog, a living document that evolves along with your understanding of the work.
- See the rubric on the next page.

Grading Guidelines

- 9-10 Detailed, meaningful passages, and quotation selections. Thoughtful interpretation and commentary about the text; avoids clichés. Well-integrated quotes. Includes comments about literary elements such as diction, imagery, syntax, and how these elements contribute to the meaning of the text as a whole. Makes insightful personal connections and asks thought-provoking questions. Journal is neat and organized -- student has followed the directions in the organization of the journal.
- 7-8 Less detailed but good quotation selections. Some intelligent commentary; addresses some thematic connections. Some integrated quotes. Includes some literary elements but less on how they contribute to the meaning. Some personal connection; asks pertinent questions. Journal is neat and readable -- student has followed the directions in the organization of the journal.
- 5-6 Few good details from the text. Most commentary is vague, unsupported, or plot summary. Some listing of literary elements; virtually no discussion on meaning. Limited personal connection; asks few or obvious questions. Not consistent with minimum length requirements. Journal is relatively neat, but may be difficult to read. Student has not followed all directions in journal organization.
- 3-4 Hardly any good details from the text. All notes are plot summary. Few literary elements, virtually no discussion on meaning. Limited personal connections; no good questions. Way too short. Didn't follow directions in organizing journal; difficult to read or follow.
