

2019 Summer Reading Assignments

English 2

(University Students)

Please be aware that students will be held responsible for the assignments on the first day of the fall semester. If a student chooses to change the level of course or class or program over the summer, the student will be held responsible for the summer assignments for the courses reflected on the schedule for the first day of school. If you have questions regarding which course your student is enrolled in for the fall, please contact your guidance counselor. If you have any questions regarding the assignment please contact Andrea Weaver at weavera@pcsb.org

Work will be collected on the first 1st day of school. Be prepared for a test the 1st week of school.

Assignment 1: Read Ranger's Apprentice: The Ruins of Gorlan (Book 1 in the series) by John Flanagan and complete the assignments below.

1. Research the following archetypal patterns and provide a working definition for each and an explanation of how each is significant in The Ranger's Apprentice, including which character or event is evidence of the archetype.
 - The hero
 - The helper
 - The mentor
 - The villain

Archetype	Definition	Character	How does the character fit the description?	Evidence to support your thinking (make sure to include the page #)

2. Write a postcard from the point of view of a character of your choice to another character of your choice in the novel. Your postcard should use details from the text to demonstrate an understanding of the following:
 - The character's unique point of view, thoughts, attitude and conflict
 - The relationship between the two characters
 - How the setting informs the character

On the other side, creatively represent the character and or/ setting to complete your postcard. You can do this by hand or make a digital version. Try your best to make your postcard as visually appealing as possible!
