ABOUT US

Sanderlin K-8 became an authorized Primary Years Programme (PYP) International Baccalaureate® (IB) School in 2007 and an authorized Middle Years Programme (MYP) in 2015. Our MYP international studies curriculum includes advanced and rigorous course work, while fostering effective listening, problem solving, personal reflection, responsibility, and ethical decision-making. Within a student inquiry framework, students become more culturally aware by exploring current events and real-world issues. An emphasis on traits that develop international-mindedness supports students in finding a sense of belonging in the ever-changing and increasingly interrelated world around them.

INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAMME OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Sanderlin's MYP provides an intellectually challenging environment that encourages students to become critical and reflective thinkers in preparation for success in college, careers and citizenship in the 21st century global environment. The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme is designed to help middle school students find a sense of belonging in the ever-changing and increasingly interrelated world around them and to foster a positive attitude toward learning.

- Art & Design: Minimum of 1 semester per year in various electives in the Arts & Design

Eight subject groups are integrated through global contexts that provide a framework for learning across the subjects. The interdisciplinary nature of this curriculum helps students build a strong foundation for responsibility and citizenship at the national and global level, encouraging reflective practice that inspires active and responsible participation in their communities. This interdisciplinary approach emphasizes connections between traditional subjects and the real world. This provides opportunities for individual and collaborative planning and research among students and teachers alike, guiding students to monitor and direct their own learning through effective decision making, goal setting and time management.
