Independent Citizens Referendum Oversight Committee

December 9, 2019

19-20 Quarter 1

School Board Administration Building

11:00-12:30 p.m.

The Independent Citizens Referendum Oversight Committee (ICROC) conducted a meeting on Monday, December 9, 2019, at the School Board Administration Building, 301 4th Street SW, Largo, FL 33770.

Members of ICROC Present: Reagan Miller, Pinellas County Council PTA; Keisha Bell, Concerned Organizations for Quality Education for Black Students; Mitch Lee, Pinellas Education Foundation; Marti Folwell, League of Women Voters, St. Petersburg and Mike Meidel, Economic Development Council

District Representatives Present: Kevin Hendrick, Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services; Karen Coffey, Executive Director, Budget and Resource Allocation; Jonathan Ogle, PK-12 Visual Arts Specialist; Jeanne Reynolds, PK-12 Performing Arts Specialist; Jacqueline Hurley, High School Reading Specialist; Connie Kolosey, Director, Library, Technology, and Instructional Materials and Holly Slaughter, Elementary Reading and Language Specialist

The meeting was called to order at 12:06 p.m. The minutes from the October 25, 2019, 18-19 Quarter 4, meeting were approved.

Overview of Referendum Revenues/Expenditures: Karen Coffey presented an overview of the 19-20 Quarter 1 referendum revenues and expenditures and supplement history. She noted a salary rollover to the 19-20 school year and an increase to the 19-20 teacher salary supplement referenced in the handouts provided.

Jonathan Ogle, new Visual Arts Specialist, reported that the Referendum continues to enhance K-12 Visual Arts programs in our district by providing funding for quality art supplies, materials, furniture, equipment, technology, field trips, student summer camps, training, and support. He shared that the Visual Arts Dept increased discretionary funding for art materials and supplies by 25 cents per student, there have been 13 more Equipment/Furniture Requests from teachers than last year, and the class-sets of Scholastic Art Magazines have been ordered and are currently being used in art rooms. Additionally, 16 new art teachers completed ArtTIP (Art Technology Integration Program) training this fall, there have been 18 more Teacher Tech Equipment requests this year than last, and some funds will be allocated to pilot a laser cutter printer with HS 3D students and a 3D printer pilot program at an elementary school this year. Jonathan shared they will have 27 total refresh or new digital arts labs setup this year (nine more than last year), there have been 17 more field trips than last year at this time and there will be an increased expense this year with the addition of a Senior User Support Technician to support teachers and Digital Arts Labs across the district. He talked briefly about an increase in Art Teacher Curriculum Projects (seven more than last year) and shared that due to the out-of-district FAEA (Florida Art Education Association) State Professional Development Conference attendance of 70 art educators, there was an increase in the Training and Support budget category with rollover dollars. He went on to say there were 15 art teachers that presented at the state conference, that a student from Clearwater High School earned the "Best of Show Award", a student from Safety Harbor Middle School earned the "Middle School Division Award", and there were 95 student artworks from Pinellas County accepted into the FAEA state-wide exhibition. Jonathan concluded his reporting by sharing that the Visual Arts Department has conducted 14 art teacher trainings so far this school year, three art teachers earned Adobe

Industry Certification in Photoshop this fall, and 14 HS art teachers attended the Advanced Placement Summer Institute either at Boca Ciega HS or USF.

Mrs. Reynolds reported on the 1st quarter expenditures for performing arts. She stated that spending was on track as planned and that the first quarter is a planning quarter. Schools make requests and funds are placed at the school site so there is not much activity. Most of these funds will be spent in the 2nd and 3rd quarter. Mrs. Reynolds reported on the Gibbs High School sound replacement project noting that the project was still on-going and had not gone out to bid yet. This work is tentatively scheduled to take place during the summer. Mrs. Reynolds reported that there are two additional secondary music positions that are partially funded with referendum dollars to ensure continuity for the music programs at those schools. The Florida Orchestra (TFO) Partnership continues to be very strong. Mrs. Reynolds reported on the recent Youth Orchestra concerts featuring a space theme. The two TFO teaching partners continue to be very successful. Mrs. Reynolds also reported that the Madeira Beach Fundamental School Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Ajori Spencer, was invited to perform as a model program at the prestigious Southeastern United States Middle School Concert Band Clinic. Mr. Spencer also serves as the referendum funded Ignite Summer Music Camp director.

Dr. Kolosey reported that Technology Referendum funds provided stipends for technology training for 239 teachers during the first quarter of 19-20. These sessions included titles such as Technology Tools that Work, Building Your Digital Classroom and Technology Ed Camp. In addition, 106 Smart Boards or Epson interactive projectors were installed in classrooms. Finally, we launched CTIP 2019 (Computer Technology Integration Program) which is an exciting revitalization of previous CTIP projects where teachers receive laptop carts in exchange for 30 hours of professional development. Twenty-four teachers received 12 laptops and a cart each. They are paired with a colleague at the same school and work with one of the Technology Integration Coordinators for collaborative planning in using technology to engage students in learning.

Dr. Kolosey also reported that Library Media Technology Referendum funds were used to purchase video production technology for school news broadcasting studios including 11 Tricastors, cables, microphones and Padcastors. Other purchases included books and ebooks to support Battle of the Books, SAM Labs, 19 Edison STEAM tables and other maker space supplies. Each school was provided an allotment to purchase additional media materials to meet the individual needs of their programs.

Holly Slaughter reported on the spending in the 1st quarter. She stated that spending included bringing together grade-level focus groups over the summer, including Exceptional Education teachers, Gifted teachers as well as English Language teachers to add additional supports to the modules. She stated that school enhancement fund spending will continue through quarter three. The module roll-out texts is the largest portion of the budget and supports our most important initiative – to get books in classrooms. She stated that this spending already occurred in quarter one. Over 75 teachers (approximately one from each school) attended the Florida Standards Summer Institute at Poynter Institute led by professional writers. The Phonics Project this year was expanded to 2nd grade. This project provides students with copies of decodable texts and teachers received a professional book.

Jacqueline Carey, 9-12 Reading Specialist reported that school-based enhancement fund allocations were once again increased this year, bringing the per pupil allocation to over double what it was three years ago. Referendum funds also allowed for a national speaker to deliver the keynote address at the High School Language Arts & Reading district-wide training in August. Upfront magazine and AVID Weekly subscriptions were renewed, and the world language, science, and social studies departments have already been given funds to purchase supplementary materials to enhance student experiences in content area classes. Finally, funds have been allocated for students to take SAT and ACT school-day and national administrations at no cost to families.

Review of Annual Report: The 18-19 Annual Report needs to be presented to the School Board in January each year. As the 18-19 Chairperson Reagan Miller agreed to present the report at the, January 14, 2020, board meeting.

Election of Officers: The members present discussed the three officer positions needed. They voted for Mitch Lee as Chairperson, Reagan Miller at Vice Chairperson and Keisha Bell as the secretary for 2020.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:22 p.m.

An audio recording will be placed on file in the office of the Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services. Prepared by: Heather Rochkind, Secretary to the Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services.

Mitch Lee, Chairperson
