Independent Citizens Referendum Oversight Committee

Workshop – December 9, 2015
School Board Administration Building
11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

The Independent Citizens Referendum Oversight Committee (ICROC) conducted a meeting on Wednesday, December 9, 2015 at the School Board Administration Building, 301 4th Street SW, Largo, FL 33770.

Members of ICROC Present: Linda Kearschner, Pinellas County Council PTA; Mike Meidel, Pinellas County Economic Development; Robert Safransky, COQEBS; Martha Folwell, League of Women Voters, Mitch Lee, Pinellas Education Foundation

District Representatives Present: Kevin Smith, Associate Superintendent, Finance and Business Services; Karen Coffey, Executive Director, Budget and Resource Allocation; Pamela Moore, Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services, Sue Castleman, PK-12 Visual Arts Specialist; Danielle Campbell, High School Reading Specialist; Beth Anderson, Middle School Reading Specialist; Holly Slaughter, Elementary Reading and Language Arts Specialist; Jeanne Reynolds, PK-12 Performing Arts, Pat Lusher, Director, Library, Technology, and Instructional Materials

The meeting was called to order by Robert Safransky at 11:05 a.m. Minutes of the September 30, 2015 meeting were approved.

Overview of Referendum Revenues/Expenditures: Kevin Smith presented an overview of the referendum's revenues and expenditures. He made reference to several handouts. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

Sue Castleman, Specialist, K-12 Visual Arts reported that during the first quarter there was limited spending in the Visual Arts. In the Art Teacher Technology training, funds were expended to purchase computer hardware for training delivered in September for the 25 new visual arts teachers. Computer labs were ordered in July, 2 high schools, 4 middle schools iPad Labs and 8 elementary iPad labs. These labs are in the schools and being utilized. Forty-thousand dollars was added to the art field trip category from the carryover funds. This was needed since the 6th grade art field trips to the Museum of Fine Arts has increased in the past year. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

Jeanne Reynolds, Specialist, K-12 Performing Arts reported on the 1st quarter expenditures. During the first quarter teachers do an assessment of needs and then enter their requests in the performing arts database. This was going as planned. Funding was being used to support the Bay Point/Lakewood choral position. Funds were expended for summer training. Mrs. Reynolds discussed the focus on music technology curriculum work that was in progress this year. There was discussion about the success of the string program and the positions that are being funded to support this program. Mrs. Reynolds shared that orchestra programs were now being offered in ALL high schools. Additionally, Mrs. Reynolds shared that there may be a need to add two more all-county ensembles due to the growth in musical achievement and the numbers of students auditioning. In general, the referendum plan is going as planned. More expenditures are to be expected in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

Pat Lusher, Director of Digital Learning shared the referendum expenditures from July 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016. Ms. Lusher reviewed the project coordinator positions and indicated that there is currently a vacancy in one of the positions due to the resignation of a staff member in September. Ms. Lusher shared we are waiting until the end of the school year to replace this person because we do not want to take a teacher from a classroom at this time of the year. Ms. Lusher reviewed the plan for this year to install interactive projectors in the secondary classrooms and the model for the elementary classrooms. The secondary classrooms will be installing an interactive projector on the dry erase whiteboard making it an interactive device. The elementary classrooms will be installing a Smart Board and a projector in each classroom due the height requirements of the projectors. Currently the dry erase whiteboards are too high for elementary students and cannot be lowered because part of the interactive projector must be mounted on the dry erase whiteboard. Ms. Lusher indicated when an actual Smart Board is installed the projector that fits with the Smart Board does not need to be mounted on the actual board. This allows the Smart Board to be lowered for smaller students. Ms. Lusher reviewed the software purchase for the Smart Boards and we have a three year agreement in place. This allows for the exploration of new technologies with referendum funds. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

Holly Slaughter, Specialist, K-5 Reading and Language Arts, shared that each of the 76 schools received school-based enhancement funds in September. All plans are due in by December 18, most schools spend the money on classroom libraries and books for students. These dollars will be reflected in Quarter 2 & 3. Science and Health literacy materials were purchased to support content area literacy and Reading endorsement funds will be spent as needed, personnel continue to support the Leveled Literacy Intervention Initiative. She then shared that the Module Rollout Text expenditures so far reflect copies of grade level texts (enough for each student). In the first quarter we also purchased, How to Be Cool in the Third Grade for 3rd grade & The Memory String for 4th grade. Along with the books, we provide teachers with professional development and lesson ideas. To further promote the implementation of Florida Standards, this summer will be the third institute. We are encouraging each school to send two teachers to this institute one teacher who attended last year and one new teacher. Dr. Clark is planning the institute now and meeting with several of us next week to share plans and brainstorm ideas. Mrs. Slaughter shared that all first grade teachers will receive their own Jan Richardson K-2 Assessment Kit. The program is not only an assessment program, but also includes a ton of online resources to use the assessment to diagnose student strengths and weaknesses as well as ideas for instruction. Additionally, referendum funds purchased books from professional development speakers. The authors of the books are coming to our district in February to facilitate the District Wide Training. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

Danielle Campbell, Specialist, 9-12 Reading, and Beth Anderson, Specialist, 6-8 Reading, reported that Secondary Reading Referendum funds helped to provide professional development (PD) opportunities for teachers and literacy coaches that included summer PD at the Poynter Institute with Roy Peter Clark. Reading Referendum funds have also allowed us to stay the course regarding Reading Endorsement coursework. Teachers may take the required coursework to obtain the add-on Reading Endorsement for their teaching certification at no cost. New teachers have gotten the opportunity to observe model classrooms and debrief and plan for high quality instruction thanks to the TDEs referendum funds have provided.

Reading Referendum makes it possible to provide many instructional resources aligned to the Language Arts Florida Standards. Teengagement, AVID Weekly, and Scholastic magazines have made it possible to pair texts for synthesizing tasks required by LAFS and ACT. School-based enhancement funds were distributed to each of the middle and high schools based on student enrollment. These funds continue to be popular as they provide schools with necessary materials they need to support literacy and meet their School Improvement Plan (SIP) goals. A hard copy of the detailed reports was presented to each of the ICROC members and accompanies this set of minutes.

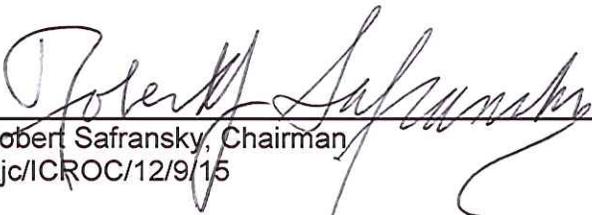

The committee requested approval to seek a replacement for Mr. Joseph Farrell, who represented the Pinellas Realtor Organization on the committee. School board policy 2140 provides guidelines on the creation, membership and date of establishment of this committee. This replacement is needed to maintain alignment with school board policy. The School Board will contact the Pinellas Realtor Organization to recommend a new representative on the Independent Citizens Referendum Oversight Committee.

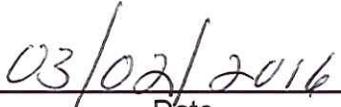

Election of Officers – After a brief discussion, the committee decided that Mike Meidel will take over as Chairperson, Martha Folwell, Vice-chairperson and Linda Kearschner, Secretary.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

An audio recording will be placed on file in the office of the Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services.

Prepared by: Kimberly Christy, Secretary to the Associate Superintendent, Teaching and Learning Services.
