Boy sleeping with his velveteen rabbit,
illustration by Michael Hague

"It doesn't happen all at once," said the Skin Horse. "You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't happen often to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are Real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in your joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are Real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand..."

~From "The Velveteen Rabbit" by Margery Williams

"It's a thing that happens to you. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but REALLY loves you, then you become real...Once you become real you can't become unreal again. It lasts for always."

~From "The Velveteen Rabbit" by Margery Williams

Season's Greetings MBFS families,

A well-deserved Winter Break is upon us December 24, 2018 - January 7, 2019. No school for students on January 7th.

You may have heard the children's story "The Velveteen Rabbit." It is a story dear to me. For 20 years (since my dad's death in 1998), I have read it to 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students (as a teacher, and administrator) the day before the winter break begins. I read it to remind me of dad and to remind me of my own humility and what it means to be real.

Adolescence is typically the time student's start worrying about how they look and what others think.

The story teaches that beauty is really not about how you look... it's about who you are, and when someone loves you for who you really are, the way you look doesn't matter.

In the story a boy is given a stuffed toy rabbit at Christmas. The story comes from the perspective of the toy rabbit, who is told by the other toys in the boy's cupboard, that if he is loved enough, he will become real. They know this because the toys in the boy's bedroom come to life when the boy is asleep or away from his bedroom. This theme is similar to the movie "Toy Story". It's fun to get inside the heads of toys to see what they do and talk about when the boy is not around. The toys that were old and beat up and not as new and shiny as the other toys, they were the most-loved. The boy loved his toys so much they became real to him (and the other toys in the bedroom knew that).

The rabbit is first teased by the more modern toys in the child's bedroom because he had no cranks or springs or other mechanical parts. Then he's teased by real rabbits because he didn't look like a real rabbit. This made the rabbit sad and self-conscious. By the time the rabbit had become real, most of his hair had been loved off, his eye dropped out, he got loose in the joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand. What does it mean to be real?

Sometimes the only way to deliver these themes is through stories.

The Velveteen Rabbit contains messages of how to love, being humble, and being real. I hope you will read this story sometime, as I do to remind myself.

As a New Year approaches, now is the time to reflect on our blessings, and recharge our spirits.

Wishing you and your family peace and joy, and lots of sunshine.

See you in 2019,
Mr. Ateek, Principal

MBFS appreciates you logging your volunteer hours. We submit that information to the district to show what a positive impact our families have on our School.

We could not do this without your help!

If you have any questions about volunteering, please contact the Family and Community Liaison, Stacie Allen at allensta@pcsb.org or 727-547-7838.

MANTA STORE DONATIONS

The Manta Store is looking for donations.

A few of the items that have been sold in the past are: hair bows, headbands, candles – socks – picture frames for parents, hand massager's, board games, card games, craft items, little note pads, Nerf balls, walkie talkies, just to name a few. As you can see the students like to purchase items for their parents as well as fun items for themselves. A good idea may be post-holiday items or clearance items of any type for girls and boys alike. If you are able to help with any type of donation please send them to the elementary front office labeled Manta Store donation.

GREAT AMERICAN TEACH-IN

We would like to thank all who participated in the Great American Teach-In. We had approximately 110 speakers, including equestrians, SWAT vehicle, Go-carts and Al Ruechel from Bay News 9. Tijuana Flats and Publix helped with catering this great event. Thank you to the 20+ volunteers who helped check in and escort our speakers. It was a fabulous event and our students were able to learn and experience many different occupations and hobbies.

CAREER DAY

Sixth grader and future orthodontist (Doctor) Jillian D. explains her profession during Career Day speeches in Mr. Ross's Advanced Language Arts class.

STUDENT HOMEWORK

Homework may be assigned any day of the week. Students who do not have homework assignments completed and in class by the assigned date will receive two demerits. However, the student will be given credit for the portion of the homework that is completed. When parents/guardians sign a homework paper, it is an indication that the parent/guardian has looked over the assignment for accuracy, completion, neatness, name, and appropriate responses. Students whose homework does not have the required parent/guardian signature will receive one demerit. Students who do not bring the necessary materials to class will receive one demerit. Students will not be allowed to use the school phone to request forgotten materials be brought to school. Homework which is forgotten at home and brought to school by the parent/guardian will not be delivered to the classroom.

ATTENDANCE AWARENESS

Good attendance helps children do well in school and eventually in the workplace. Good attendance matters for student success as early kindergarten and throughout elementary school. By middle school, poor attendance is a leading indicator of dropout. Developing the habit of attendance prepares students for success on the job and in life.

In the month of October MBFS will look at student attendance closely. All students with 100% attendance for the month of October will receive a Shorts Day/ Hat Day as a reward Friday, November 2. (All award recipients can select any style of shorts to wear). Students will be notified Thursday, November 2 if they are a reward recipient.

Excused and Unexcused absences quickly add up to too much time lost in the classroom, starting in kindergarten and even pre-k, especially for the most vulnerable population. Students are at risk academically if they miss 10 percent of the school year, or about 18 days. Once too many absences occur, they can affect learning, regardless of whether absences are excused or unexcused. Avoid unnecessary absences. Some absences are unavoidable. Occasionally, children get sick and need to stay home. What is important is getting children to school as often as possible. Sporadic, not just consecutive, absences matter. Before you know it – just one or two days a month can add up to nearly 10 percent of the school year. Chronic absence, missing 10 percent or more of the school year does not just affect the students who miss school. If too many students are chronically absent, it slows down instruction for other students, who must wait while the teacher repeats material for absentee students. This makes it harder for students to learn and teachers to teach.

As a reminder, parents/ guardians are required to contact the school in writing for any and all absences, otherwise the school will consider your child's absence unexcused. Did you know you can Report Student a Students Absence on our website at www.pcsb.org/mb-ms? Simply click the link (at the top of the page directly to the right), to send an email to the school to report this absence. Include the Student's Name, Date of Birth, Grade, Date Absent and Reason. If applicable, please send any documentation to support the absence. When complete, click the send button.

If you wish to have an absence excused in advance, please refer to the Pinellas County Schools Code of Student Conduct pages 33-36, and our school fundamental handbook, located in the front pages of your student agenda for a full and more detailed explanation of Pinellas County Schools attendance policies and what can and cannot be considered excused. Related to student attendance, please remember the earliest student drop off in the morning is 7:15 AM (middle grades), and 7:25 AM (K5). The latest student pick up in the afternoon in no more than 30 minutes from the end of the student day.

IAC NEEDS

Each fundamental program has a school-based Intervention and Appeal Committee. The purpose of this committee is to review and enforce cases including severe or repeated discipline infractions, continued lack of compliance with homework and /or classwork policies, failure to follow the dress code, parental absences from PTSA/SAC meetings and parental non-attendance at required conferences. The IAC may recommend alternatives and interventions for improvement, recommend probations with stipulations and removals from the program. The committee will meet on a regular, predetermined basis or when requested by the principal/designee (usually Tuesday or Thursday afternoons). Committee members who serve will receive monthly general membership meeting credit. Efforts are currently being made to create our school intervention and appeals committees this year.

If you are interested in serving on our school intervention and appeals committee we will be holding a special meeting to parents interested in serving Thursday, October 11, in B13-206 led by Principal Ateek. Since committee members serve a one year term, all parents interested (even if you had prior experience) will be required to attend this important meeting.

Please email Mrs. Debra Ivy at ivydy@pcsb.org if you plan to attend this meeting so that an appropriate number of materials can be made and available to you and so that you can sign off on a confidentiality pledge stating the following:

To maintain confidentiality for fundamental school students each Intervention and Appeals Committee parent representative must annually sign to show their compliance with the following statement:

"I understand that under the Family Educations Rights and Privacy Act and Florida Statutes, student records are confidential. As a member of this school's Intervention and Appeals Committee, I understand that I will have access to confidential information and agree to maintain the confidentiality of all student records and information, including student evaluation records and personally identifiable information contained therein."

A student's dismissal from our program is a last resort. We truly appreciate our intervention and appeals committee members, as decisions related to students are incredibly important. Thank you for your consideration in serving your school.

KULA has partnered with Red Robin to create the "Burgers For Better Schools" program that is an extension of their loyalty, or "Royalty" program. Royalty members can login using their existing royalty account, or create a new one. From there they can select any school of their choice as their designated school to automatically receive 1% of the total bill from their meal each time they dine at any Red Robin locations. The donation is automatic and the customer only needs to notify the Red Robin employee of their royalty account number at the time of payment. Because we do not track individual patrons donations to separate clubs or organizations, the donation is to be used at the school's discretion. Please visit www.redrobin.com/betterschools for information and FAQ's.
