

the dalí in the classroom

The Dalí Museum is bringing the culture and art of Salvador Dalí to the classroom virtually. High school and middle school art teachers can set up this unique learning experience in their classroom, whether teaching face-to-face or online.

students will learn about

- The Dalí Museum
- Surrealism
- Dalí's inspirations
- The culture of Spain

program includes

- 30-40 minutes of interactive learning
- A Museum-trained docent highlighting key Dalí works
- Self-administered activities for further education

find out more

Cost: $180 per class

