

Part 1: “A Story for an Hour”

- Read “A Story for an Hour” short story by Kate Chopin
 - <https://www.owleyes.org/text/the-story-of-an-hour/read/chopins-short-story>
- Choose one of the following assignment options: (TNR 12pt DS)
 - Essay Prompt: Tell the same story from Josephine's point of view (remember, Louisa keeps her door shut most of the time).
 - Essay Prompt: Consider reading the one act play by Susan Glaspell, Trifles (1916), about a murder trial which challenges our perceptions of justice and morality. Compare it to Chopin's The Story of An Hour
 - Essay Prompt: Read Kate Chopin's biography (feel free to extend your research to other sources). How does her personal story reflect her writing?

Part 2: Teen Reads Choice Novel

- Choose one of the novels from the list below to read.
 - The Black Flamingo
 - Date Me, Bryson Keller
 - Fable
 - Grown
 - The Hive
 - Legendborn
 - Not So Pure and Simple
 - Rules for Vanishing
 - Stamped
 - They Went Left
 - This Is My America
 - Today Tonight Tomorrow
 - We Are Not From Here
 - What I Carry
- Fill in an entry on the Reading Log from the school’s website for each time you open the Choice Novel to read. Turn in the reading log on the first day of school.

Contact email:

Ms. Friend friendch@pcsb.org