

English III Regular Summer Reading 2016

Osceola Fundamental High School

This summer all English III students will read a young adult novel. The novels we read for this course will address the overall general theme of: "The American Dream" is it achievable and if so, at what cost.

Students will have a choice:

Speak by Laurie Halse Anderson

ARTICLE 5 by Kristen Simmons

Students MUST bring the following book on the 1st day of school:

No Fear: The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne

ISBN: 9781411426979

Back at School

Returning to school in the fall, all students will turn in their essays by August 28th. During the first week of school, students will take a test on their summer reading to demonstrate understanding of plot, characters, and theme.
