

Osceola Fundamental High School
English II Honors Summer Reading & Assignment 2016-17

Welcome to the 2016-17 English II class! To introduce you to the world of literature, your summer assignment is a novel set in Sierra Leone after their civil war.

The assigned novel you will read is Radiance of Tomorrow by Ishmael Beah (ISBN 978-0374535032).

Quote Bank

You will create a quote bank from the novel that consists of at least 10 quotations or excerpts from the novel to be used during discussions and assignments the first week of class. Finding your ten quotes will help you as you read, as well as provide textual evidence for your writing. Quotes should be at least one complete sentence in length with a mix of longer and shorter quotes. Each quote will have a label and a short written explanation to go with it (3-4 sentences). You must explain why you selected these quotes, not simply summarize and repeat what is already written. Quotes should be labeled in the following categories:

- Form, Structure, or Plot: Choose quotes that deal with the timeline of the plot such as dream sequences, significant patterns of foreshadowing, flashbacks, and anything else interesting about the narrative.
  - Character: Choose quotes that expose information about the central characters and their function in the novel.
  - Setting: Choose quotes that show where and when the story takes place, and how this affects the plot or ideas of the novel.
  - Themes: Choose quotes that identify major themes in the novel. What moral and ethical questions are being explored? What is the big lesson the author wants us to learn?
  - Imagery: Choose quotes that appeal to one or more of the five senses. What is the effect? Look for images that are recurring throughout the novel.
  - Symbolism: Choose quotes that have an image used to suggest multiple meanings. When something is used metaphorically, it becomes a symbol. What is the effect of the symbol, and how does it connect to the theme or themes of the novel?
  - Figurative Language: Choose quotes that are examples of the following literary devices: metaphors, similes, personification, or allusions.

You are expected to have finished the reading and the assignment by the start of the school year. You must bring your novel with you on the first day of school, or there will be demerits issued for not having appropriate materials. The first weeks of school will focus on this novel. Please be prepared and do not put off the work until the end of the break. We look forward to meeting you in class, and hope you have a great summer!
