Hooked on Family Engagement Keynote Live Webinar

Harnessing the Power of Families to Support Student Learning and Development

In many schools across the country, families feel locked out of their child's learning or unsure of how they can get involved. In this time of hybrid and virtual learning, strong partnerships with families are more important than ever. During this presentation, you will learn about the three most effective things schools and educators can do to make home-school partnerships an effective instructional strategy.

Featuring Jenni Brasington – Senior Director of Consultative Services for Scholastic Education and founding partner of the Center for Active Family Engagement (CAFÉ)

November 5, 2020 - 4:30 – 5:30 PM Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Jenni has more than 25 years of experience working with PK-12 schools as an administrator, early childhood coordinator and school counselor to improve student achievement and build effective family-school partnerships. She most recently served as the Director of Family and Community Engagement for Acelero Learning, a large Head Start grantee with delegate agencies in four states. She is the author of the Family Friendly Walk-Through and the co-author of the Family Engagement Assessment.
