If an issue happens in class, change the behavior quickly so that all students can learn, and the teacher can provide quality instruction.

If you are not ready to learn in class, all teachers will follow this process:

STEP 1 – Teacher will REDIRECT and DOCUMENT THE STUDENT’S NAME (notepad, clipboard, etc)

STEP 2 – Teacher will CHANGE STUDENT SEAT (if seat is available)

STEP 3 – Teacher will call the grade-level clerk for behavior assistance (student may be able to return to class if the monitor determines they are ready)

STEP 4 – If the behavior persists, the teacher will complete the IC form and call the grade-level office for student removal.

NOTE: Student will go to IC for the period or the rest of the day, as determined by administration.

* Teachers will call home that day to gain parental support and log contact in Focus
Intervention Center

Behavior Consequences

- Any student removed to IC will remain in IC until a behavior reflection sheet has been completed.
