Note: This consent form is for GIFTED ONLY. If there is a suspected disability and giftedness, please use the "ESE PEER Notice and Consent for Initial Evaluation"

Note: The term "Gifted Evaluation" refers to the process of considering a students evaluations to make an eligibility determination.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

School personnel have proposed that your child to go through our gifted eligibility determination process. This is based on your child's current educational performance and/or any previous evaluations which were used as a base for this proposal.

Previous evaluation: Gifted Screening KBIT NNAT Score: _____ Percent _____%

The gifted eligibility determination process is recommended to determine: the educational needs of your child; whether your child has an exceptionality; and whether, as a result of that exceptionality, your child needs special educational and related services.

Suspected Area of Exceptionality: L – Gifted

The state of Florida requires districts to consider 3 evaluations before gifted eligibility is determined. We must have your informed written consent before the following evaluations are conducted. Please indicate your decisions below; sign and date.

Proposed evaluations to consider for gifted eligibility determination:

- The gifted characteristics checklist – PCS FORM 2-2592 or 2-3593 Part 1
- The need for special programming – PCS FORM 2-2592 or 2-3593 Part 2
- Assessment of student's intellectual development (IQ) (Evaluations can be done through our district or obtained privately. Please select.)
 - Consent for a district administered IQ Evaluation: a school psychologist administers an intellectual evaluation and aims to complete all testing within a 90 school-day window
 - OR
 - Consideration of a privately obtained IQ Evaluation: families acquire an intellectual evaluation (IQ) by a private, licensed psychologist. Completed at families' expense.
