Taxpayer Identification Number:

Enter your taxpayer identification number in the appropriate space. For Individuals, this is your social security number. For sole proprietors, this may be either a social security number or employer identification number. For other entities, it is your identification number. For Estates furnish the employer identification number issued to the estate and not the social security number of the deceased. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply, get form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Number Card (for individuals) from your local office of the Social Security Administration, or Form SS-4, Application for employer Identification Number (for businesses and all other entities), from your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

To complete the certification if you do not have a TIN, fill out the certification indicating that a TIN has been applied for, sign and date the form, and return it to this agency.

Certification:

WILLFULLY FALSIFYING CERTIFICATIONS OR AFFIRMATIONS MAY SUBJECT YOU TO CRIMINAL PENALTIES INCLUDING FINES AND/OR IMPRISONMENT.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- (1) The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me)
AND
- (2) I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding (does not apply to real estate transactions, mortgage interest paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, contribution to an individual retirement arrangement [IRA], and payments other than interest and dividends)

Certification Instructions — You must cross out item (2) above if you have been notified by IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because of underreporting interest or dividends on your tax return.
