ABOUT US

Established in 1914, Largo High School (LHS) serves the 4th largest urban city of Largo in the Tampa Bay area enrolling 2,260 scholars in the Pinellas School District. This public school offers two magnet programs, the International Baccalaureate (IB) and Exploring Careers & Education in Leadership, plus the traditional program with course options in remedial, regular, honors/pre-IB, Advanced Placement (AP), and IB Diploma. Instituted in 2013, the fast growing 4-year IB program attracts highly motivated scholars in the economically diversified central section of Pinellas County. Admission for the IB program in Pinellas County is by application only; criteria for admission includes: an academic GPA (A's and B's only), completion of Algebra 1 Honors, and above average standardized test scores.
