ABOUT US

The Center for the Arts and International Studies at Perkins Elementary emphasizes hands-on learning in fine and performing arts, challenging academic content, the study of cultures and foreign languages. Students are expected to achieve at or above grade level. Many visiting artists, touring companies and schoolwide activities make Perkins a family-oriented place to learn and grow.

HIGHLIGHTS

Each week, students attend classes in music, dance, theater, art, and Spanish. 1st and 2nd graders receive violin instruction using the Suzuki method. Keyboarding classes are offered in 2nd grade. Students may choose band or strings in 3rd grade. After this exposure to the Arts, 4th and 5th graders are given a choice of ten "Focus Groups." Perkins is home to an $11-million facility designed for the arts that includes four music rooms, a full-sized dance studio, two visual arts studios with kilns and potters' wheels, an Art Gallery, a theater classroom, a 250-seat theater, and a foreign language area with space to enhance cultural studies.
