ABOUT US

The St. Petersburg High School International Baccalaureate (IB) program is a nationally recognized program with a deep tradition of academic success. Our program was the first IB Program established in the state of Florida in 1983. The International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Program (DP) is a challenging two-year curriculum, which takes place in the 11th and 12th grades. It leads to a diploma that is widely recognized by the world's leading universities. The SPHS Pre-Diploma Program (Pre-DP) prepares 9th and 10th grade students for the rigorous IB Diploma Program. Pre-DP students must successfully complete all courses and achieve a 2.69 cumulative, unweighted GPA to be eligible to enter the IB DP.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The IB program is a rigorous college prep program where students can earn up to 40 hours of college credit or more depending on IB exams results.
- 100% of students in our program are accepted into colleges and universities.
- Our program regularly produces National Merit Semi-finalists and Finalist.
- The IB program provides support systems, including Diploma Support and Academic Advising, to help students navigate the program requirements.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- Our program is consistently a model of success; not only is our diploma success rate consistently above the world average, but the St. Petersburg High School IB program produced the first perfect score by a candidate and first perfect diploma pass rate by a class in history.
- IB graduates are accepted to highly selective universities worldwide and are actively involved leaders within our school.
