

Master of Education EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Curriculum Leadership Concentration

Cohorts forming for Spring, Summer, and Fall

Graduates of this concentration bring leadership skills to curriculum focused roles in schools, district offices, and education-related organizations. The concentration is designed to teach and assess the knowledge, skills and dispositions of effective leadership in curriculum, instruction, and professional development for K-12 teachers or other educators. This concentration does not satisfy all requirements for administrator certification.

Why enroll in USF's Master's in Educational Leadership?

Complete two courses each semester and graduate in as few as five semesters. Courses are hosted in convenient yet highly personalized hybrid format.

Learn from USF's award-winning faculty, who are nationally-recognized in the field of educational leadership and policy studies.

Connect with like-minded peers, successful alumni and practitioners from across the state of Florida in our unique Professional Learning Alliance Saturday Sessions

► To learn more about our program, please visit bit.ly/usf-masters-ed-leadership

For more information, contact:
Brienne L. Reck, PhD
breck@usf.edu

Visit the USF Catalog for more information about admissions and curriculum requirements.
bit.ly/USFMEEdLdr

