

FLORIDA-APPROVED PROGRAM

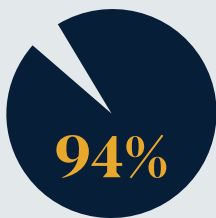

Educational Leader License

Get your Florida principal license and affect change as a school leader.

American College of Education (ACE)'s online educational leadership programs are approved by the Florida Department of Education to lead to the licensure you need to become a principal or building administrator. Designed for those who already have a master's, the Florida Educational Leadership program is aligned with Florida Educational Leadership Standards. You'll be equipped and prepared to take the Florida Educational Leadership Examination (FELE).

How you'll get there:

- ➔ Learn the latest best practices in leadership, school improvement, community engagement, teacher development and more
- ➔ Take five-week-long courses
- ➔ Accelerate your time to completion by choosing to take more than one course each term
- ➔ Complete a 10-week internship experience at your current school

Program admission requirements:

- ➔ Bachelor's or highest post-baccalaureate
- ➔ Minimum GPA of 2.75 on 4.0 scale for full admission
- ➔ Minimum GPA of 2.5 on 4.0 scale for provisional admission*
- ➔ Documentation of an initial teaching license (in the state the applicant resides), school service personnel license or a school services certificate

Already have a master's?

We'll accelerate your path to principal licensure by evaluating your existing credits and creating a custom pathway for you. Whether it's three or 30 credits, you'll only take the courses you still need to meet Florida standards requirements.
