

Item Writing and Performance Matters Trainings 2024-2025

Performance Matters 101:

In this online course, participants will learn the essentials to be able to use Performance Matters Unify with their students. This course reviews how to administer assessments in the platform to being able to utilize the reports to view student data.

PLN# 33345

Date: Opens July 1st and Open all Year

Type: Online Self-paced

Component Points: 6.0

Introduction to Creating Classroom Assessments in Performance Matters:

In this online course teachers learn how to create their own classroom assessments using the Performance Matters platform. The course will teach participants how to create items and tests within Performance Matters that can be graded within 30 minutes and presented through the various interactive reports found within Performance Matters. Participants will also gain the ability to create and use technology enhanced items within their classroom.

PLN# 33347

Date: Opens July 22nd and Open all Year

Type: Online Self-paced

Component Points: 3.0

Item Review Training Online:

In this online course, participants will be able to construct passages and/or develop test questions for educational assessments. Participants will be able to create quality assessments. Quality assessments will give students the best opportunity to show their learning and will result in meaningful data that can be used to differentiate instruction.

PLN# 33528

Date: Open July 1st and Open all Year

Type: Online Self-paced

Component Points: 3.0

Item Review Lite Online:

This course is a prerequisite requirement for participants learning how to create items using Performance Matters Generative AI. This online course is an abbreviated version of the Item Review Training online with focus on how to ensure items generated by AI are of sound quality.

PLN# 33544

Date: Open July 1st and Open all Year

Type: Online Self-paced

Component Points: 1.0