

Leadership Development Series

Course Offerings
2024-2025

Click the section#
to register

1

Evaluation Best Practices (33750) HR

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators with utilizing evaluation instruments as a tool to enhance employee performance by delivering effective formal and informal feedback. The course will incorporate performance management into an ongoing process leading to increased engagement, retention, and productivity.

Tuesday, December 10, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130342

Tuesday April 15, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130345

2

District Strategies and Policies for a Positive Culture in the Workplace (33773) HR

This course is designed to promote leadership opportunities within Pinellas County Schools. This course is recommended for newly appointed administrators. The course provides an overview of important school board policies and Federal Laws impacting the hiring process, employee treatment and equal opportunity employment.

Thursday, October 24, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130385

Thursday, March 27, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130386

3

Success Plans and Progress Discipline (33756) HR

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators in understanding in developing success plans with employees and understanding the progressive discipline continuum. Participants will be provided tools and resources to support struggling employees with performance concerns.

Thursday, October 10, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130357

Thursday January 30, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130358

4

Best Practices: Hiring (33757) HR

This course is designed to provide school and district-based administrators with research-based strategies, tools and resources. Participants will leave with hiring plans, interview questions and techniques to find the right candidates for their open positions.

Tuesday, November 19, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130346

Tuesday February 11, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130347

5

Navigating the Nuts and Bolts of Workplace Essentials: FLSA, ADA, and FMLA (33753) HR

This course is designed to provide school and district-based administrators the tools to ensure workplace compliance surrounding attendance, accommodations and Federal laws. The session will delve into critical aspects of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the American with Disabilities Act, and the Family Medical Leave Act.

Wednesday October 16, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130353

Tuesday March 4, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130354

6

Effective Leaders: How to Manage Difficult Conversations (33754) HR

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators in facilitating difficult conversations that lead to more effective, engaged and committed staff and faculties.

Wednesday, September 25, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130348

Thursday January 16, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 4:30-7:30 pm
Section# 130351

7

Retaining Our Best Employees (33755 & 33772) HR

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators with high-yield employee retention strategies. This course investigates research-based strategies and guides participants as they create and implement retention plans. Participants will leave with robust plans that include retention strategies tailored for their school or department.

Thursday, September 26, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130384

Thursday February 27, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-8 pm
Section# 130355

Time Management/Prioritization (33651) PD

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators with managing time to allow for efficiency and increased productivity. This course will also help with prioritization and how to create ways of distributive leadership work, as well as, developing personal goals and action plans.

Thursday, September 12, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm 134/135 5-7 pm

Section# 129820

How to Engage Learners (33652) PD

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators in engaging all staff. Participants will engage with setting clear learning goals, making learning convenient, how to get creative with course content and creating open communication channels with staff. They will also discuss providing timely and specific feedback.

Wednesday, October 23, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm Conference Hall 5-7 pm

Section# 129821

How to Create Effective PLC's (33654) PD

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators in leading effective Professional Learning Communities. Participants will engage in multiple ways to cultivate and sustain effective professional learning communities, such as aligning and communicating goals and creating a culture of collaboration and empowerment.

Tuesday, November 12, 2024

Admin. Bldg., Rm B213 5-7 pm

Section# 129823

How to Lead a Lesson Study (33655)PD

This course is designed to assist school and district-based administrators in conducting a successful Lesson Study with staff. Participants will examine Lesson Study research, elements, and structures. They will engage in mock facilitation and debrief structures and plan for implementation in their context. Participants will obtain resources from Lesson Study Step by Step.

Wednesday, January 22, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm E111 5-7 pm

Section# 129824

Article Study; Smart Leaders, Smarter Teams (33656) PD

This course is designed to promote deeper thinking and understanding of leadership practices through a detailed study of an excerpt from Swartz's work: Smart Leaders, Smarter Teams. This article study proposes new concepts and ideas in the field of leadership. (This is a two- part professional learning. You must attend both days to obtain credit)

Tuesday, February 4, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm E111 5-7 pm

and

Thursday February 20, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm ABC-203 5-7 pm

Section# 129827

Leader as Coach (33660) PD

This course is designed to promote opportunities for school and district-based administrators to step into a coaching role to build staff capacity. Participants will gain understanding in questioning, listening, and monitoring as well as understand how to provide direction, communication, and support to empower and grow staff.

Monday, March 3, 2025

Admin. Bldg., Rm ABC-203 5-7 pm

Section# 129829

HR- Course provided by HR Department
PD - Course provided by PD Department

A CAPACITY-BUILDING
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM

